

GSC Trivia

EP's Tuesdays

Third Week

Round I

Round I

Question 1

Three people have 12 marbles each. What's the minimum number of marbles that must be moved between these people in order that the resulting ratio is 1:2:3?

Round I

Question 2

Early in his career, Elvis Presley released the most commercially successful double-sided hit record in pop music history. What were the titles of the two songs on the flip sides of this single record (1 point each)?

Round I

Question 3

During World War I she was a spy who worked for both the French and the Germans. In 1917 she was executed by the French. Today her name refers to a seductive double-dealing woman. Who is she?

Round I

Question 4

The world's fifth largest country in area covers about half of its continent. What country is this?

Round I

Question 5

What National League Baseball Team was named the Big Red Machine in 1975-1976?

Round II

Round II

Question 1

The 100 years war began in 1337 and ended in what year ( $\pm 1$  year)?

Round II

Question 2

Called the world's most successful board game, it was unveiled in 1935, has sold more than 200 million copies in 26 languages. What is it?

Round II

Question 3

The city of Budapest, Hungary, was formed in 1873 when two cities on opposite banks of the Danube merged. What were the names of these cities?

Round II

Question 4

One of the most important foods eaten by the American colonists was succotash, a dish composed of what two ingredients (1 point each)?

Round II

Question 5

Not many long words have this quality, but ALMOST, BIOPSY, and CHIMPS are a few of the 6-letter words that do. What is it?

Round III

Round III

Question 1

What is the world's largest inland sea?

Round III

Question 2

What NBA player holds the all-time record for leading the league in scoring the most seasons, ten times?

Round III

Question 3

In the Beatles' song, Michelle, what was the line sung in French?

Round III

Question 4

According to UNESCO, what percentage of the world's adults are illiterate ( $\pm 5\%$ )?

Round III

Question 5

What is the name of the organic molecule that carries oxygen in the blood, and gives blood its red color?

Round IV

Round IV

Question 1

Fictional literary character Phileas Fogg was willing to bet anyone 20,000 pounds that he could do what?

Round IV

Question 2

Ascorbic acid is something which many of us consume virtually every day. By what name is ascorbic acid better known?

Round IV

Question 3

Name the 20th century Dutch artist whose works contain transformations of animals and geometrical shapes, and architectural impossibilities.

Round IV

Question 4

Which 20th century British scholar coined the phrase, "Work expands to fill the time available for its completion" ?

Round IV

Question 5

Who is the largest of the Sesame Street muppets?

The End